September 1, 2019: Tonight, there was a call from the KPD. They gave dispatch a description of a driver that was involved in a hit and run at Sir John A and Princess St. After multiple calls from them and messages to the drivers about the incident, we had 3 different calls in the immediate area. The 1st two ended up being no shows and the 3rd was at Food Basics Princess. Each call was suspicious as all 3 were going to the Seven Oakes Motel. When I dispatched the Basic's call to Car 42, I reminded him to check my messages about the description given to us by KPD. I was on the phone with KPD dispatch waiting while he was on route. There was a cruiser there when 42 arrived. After the man got in the taxi, they got him out and arrested him.

September 1, 2019: Customer called in to say thank-you to both of the drivers that picked up and dropped off her husband today! Both drivers were very helpful with the wheelchair and both drivers were wonderful! She's very happy with the service they received today.

September 16, 2019: Customer wanted to compliment and thank the driver who drove her during the time of the fatal stabbing. She would like her number passed onto him so she can thank him personally.

September 16, 2019: Customer called shortly after he was dropped off at his destination and was upset that he forgot to tip the driver. He said that he had such a great conversation with the driver and that they were laughing the whole time and genuinely forgot. He originally called as he wanted the driver to come back so he could give him a tip. The driver told me to relay that it was fine as he was on his way home for the night and that he had enjoyed the conversation as well. The customer then said well since he can't return, to at least make sure management knew that he had a really good driver and enjoyed the service.

September 22, 2019: Customer called in to say that her driver was the most polite and helpful driver she has ever had. He helped her in and out of the vehicle and made sure to open the door for her. He was absolutely wonderful. She is a regular customer and appreciated the kindness he showed her.

September 23, 2019: Customer said her driver was delightful. Said she was friendly, upbeat, easy to chat with & was everything you could hope for in a taxi driver. Thanks for great service.

Says very few drivers do this & he greatly appreciated that the driver made sure he got into house safely.

November 30, 2019: Customer had forgotten her cell in the taxi, said she had the loveliest driver, she said he was the sweetest man. Wanted to say thanks for bringing her phone back to her, and that she enjoyed having a driver who was so nice to talk to, and that he was very helpful.

December 1, 2019: Customer called to thank driver for being so patient & helpful. He was great and she was very happy with the service.

December 8, 2019: A man called to let us know that he witnessed the driver of car 47 stop and help 2 elderly ladies on Country Club Dr. They appeared to be lost and couldn't locate their car. He stopped and let them in the car and proceeded to drive around the various parking lots to help find it. He located the car and helped them get in and even waited for them to leave before returning to duty. The man was elated that the driver went out of his way to help them and never asked for any type of payment. A genuine good samaritan.

December 12, 2019: Customer thought the driver did an outstanding job driving him around. He also added that the driver represented the company well & thought the company in general provided excellent service.

December 19, 2019: Customer had nothing but nice things to say about her driver. She said "he was the kindest most helpful driver she has ever had". He helped her in & out of the car & helped her carry some items.

December 21, 2019: We had a call to pick up a 10-year-old girl on and I asked the phone help to take it off of auto dispatch. I then sent this driver as I know she is good with children and there would be no issues. The father called back afterwards and asked me to compliment her as he went for the ride as he doesn't quite trust a stranger with his kids. He said she was a great driver and he was extremely happy that she was the driver to pick them up. He also said that he wants to ask for her anytime that he needs to move his children around in a taxi.
